Action Behavior Centers Has Been Recapitalized by NexPhase Capital

October 25, 2018

Action Behavior Centers (“Action” or the “Company”), a leading regional provider of Applied Behavior Analysis (“ABA”) therapy services, has partnered with NexPhase Capital.

Based in Austin, TX, Action provides early intensive behavioral intervention therapy for children on the autism spectrum, through its numerous clinics across Texas. The Company is focused on the highest quality clinical care, with a committed team and staff of behavioral therapists. Action has successfully executed on a robust de novo growth strategy, to help serve the large and growing underserved population of families that require support and care.

NexPhase Capital, a New York based private equity firm established by former principals of Moelis Capital Partners, invests in healthcare, industrial services, software and consumer industries and provides equity financing, expertise, and a broad contact network for control investments. NexPhase helps companies across sectors grow and create value through dedicated operating resources, new sales channels and effective partnerships.

Cain Brothers served as the exclusive financial advisor to Action Behavior Centers in connection with the transaction.
